Numb. 6618

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 28. to Saturday December 2. 1727.

St. James's, December 2.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, have by him been preſented to His Majeſty. Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governour, Council and Repreſentatives of His Majeſty's Province of New-Hampſhire in New-England, conveen'd in General Aſſembly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave with all Humility to approach your Royal Preſence, to condole with you the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your Royal Father, of bleſſed Memory, the doleful News of which filled our Hearts with ſo great Surprize and Grief, as that nothing could have allay'd, but your Majeſty's happy and peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of your rightful Dominions; which with Hearts full of Loyalty and Affection, we crave Leave ſincerely to congratulate you upon.

Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration, that the Religion Laws and Liberties of your Subjects ſhould always be your chief and principal Care, gives us the moſt pleaſing and aſſured Proſpect to expect the Enjoyment of the ſame inеſtimable Bleſſings in your Majeſty's Reign, in this remote Part of your Dominions, as we have always under the benign Influences of your Royal Father's Government, and the preſent Adminiſtration.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous, with the happy Enjoyment of your moſt deſireable Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, and more auſpicious (if poſſible) than that of your glorious Predeceſſor; and that the Throne of Great Britain may always be bleſs'd and fill'd with an Heir of your moſt illuſtrious Family, is the zealous and fervent Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants,

(By Order of the Lieutenant-Governour, Council and Repreſentatives)

Richard Waldron, Cler. Con.

From the Council-Chamber in Portſmouth in New-Hampſhire in New-England, Aug. 31, 1727.

To His moſt Excellent Majeſty George the Second, by the Grace of God King of Great Britain France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, Miniſters of the Goſpel in your Majeſty's Province of New-Hampſhire in New-England, humbly crave Leave to repreſent our deep Senſe of the ſevere Stroke of Providence, in putting a Period to the Life of your Royal Father our late moſt gracious Sovereign, of happy Memory.

His bright Perfections and illuſtrious princely Endowments, rendered him ſo diffuſive a Bleſſing, not only to the Kingdoms under his immediate Government, but to Europe in general, that the Laws of Humanity require a mournful Reſentment of ſo unſpeakable a Loſs to Mankind.

And (the Beams of his Royal Goodneſs, like thoſe of the Sun, having reached to theſe diſtant Regions, where we dwell;) the Laws of Gratitude oblige us to pay a large Tribute of Tears to the Memory of our deceaſed Sovereign, under whoſe auſpicious Reign we have ſo long lived in the quiet and joyful Fruition of our Religious Liberties as Chriſtians, and our Civil Rights as Men.

Nor could any thing allay our aſtoniſhing Grief on this ſad Occaſion, but the Conſideration of the ſovereign Pleaſure of the moſt High, in which we are for ever bound to acquieſce; and our humble Dependance on His omnipotent Goodneſs to repair our invaluable Loſs; and the aſſured Fame we have received of your Majeſty's Heroick Virtues and moſt excellent Royal Endowments, whereby our Expectations are raiſed; and we are encouraged with the greateſt Aſſurance, to hope for the Continuation of all the Felicities of the former happy and auguſt Reign.

And now with unfeigned Joy we bleſs and adore the Divine Goodneſs for your Majeſty's peaceful Acceſſion to the Throne of your renowned Father, acknowledging your rightful and undoubted Title, as that which is clearer than the Light, and no leſs comfortable.

And we ſhall not ceaſe to offer up our fervent Requeſts to the Divine Majeſty, that He would pleaſe to encompaſs your Sacred Perſon with His Favour as with a Shield: That He would always guide your Majeſty by His unerring Counſel; and after a very long and proſperous Reign, your Majeſty may exchange your Imperial Crown on Earth, for an Immarceſſible Crown of Glory in the Heaven